International Conference on

The Power of Inner Peace

4th & 5th March, 2014

DAV Centenary College

Faridabad

Department of English

OBJECTIVES OF THE CONFERENCE

The main objectives of the conference is to achieve the power of Inner Peace by bridging the gap between science and spirituality. We also aim :-

1. To enhance the skills of students to handle themselves better than before
2. To impart spiritual values combined with Science to create future leaders
3. To understand better the application of Science in spirituality and Spirituality in science
4. To find out the practical applications of Science and Spirituality in creating a better world
5. To create a platform scientific and spiritual traditions.
6. To discuss the ways by which we can transform our visions into reality by spirituality, science and technology.
7. To look for a scientific revolution and significant spiritual changes based on science.

To address the above aims, as well as insights on these matters from various spiritual traditions, this conference is being organised. The premise is that humanity needs a scientific revolution and significant spiritual changes that will be inseparably linked, supporting and supplementing each other. Visionaries and world-class practitioners in science, spirituality and ethics will join educationists, futurists, philosophers and spiritual leaders at this conference.
